More than 15,000 guests attended last year's event, which is now one of the most important features of the Naples' social season. The Palm Beach Show Group also organizes the Palm Beach Jewelry, Art & Antique Show, which will celebrate its 13th edition this year on Presidents' Day weekend, preceding the 2016 Naples, Art Antique & Jewelry Show.

“Our Naples Show is the perfect compliment to our Palm Beach Show,” adds Diament. “With this event we provide our exhibitors with tremendous back-to-back exposure to the most affluent collectors from the Northeast, who choose to winter in Southeast Florida, and the most affluent collectors from the Midwest, who choose to spend their winters on the West Coast of Florida.”

The Naples Art, Antique & Jewelry Show is designed to meet the needs of galleries and collectors alike. With its commitment to create an environment that fosters these relationships, the Palm Beach Show Group considers Naples to be an important world-class market where prominent galleries are exposed to a high-end, art buying public.

The Naples Exhibition Center is located in the heart of downtown and in close proximity to Fifth Avenue, the city's world renown shopping, dining and entertainment district.
